

Bob McFarland
Club President 2018 - 2019

Meeting No. 1954 Thursday 26th July 2018

This informal meeting was held at the Grosvenor Hotel and commenced with the scene being set by member Alan Kluske, aka "Mr Menswear", who generously presented male members with a free tie to wear, which sadly they did. The word is out to check the photos when they are posted on our club's website.

President Bob McFarland formally welcomed all members and guest Isobel McGarry.

The club's traditional 'fines session' was conducted by Alan Kluske with professional flair and good humour.

The special meal on offer, chilli con carne was very much enjoyed as a welcome different meal to our usual offering.

All those present then turned their minds to the Environmental Quiz, put together and presented by Dr Brian Rodan. Peter Manuel PhD won the inaugural RCEB Environmental Cat Award, and lesser mortals Barrey Niven, Bob McFarland, Ken Carter and Shirley Sunter also scored a worthy mention.

In closing the meeting, President Bob McFarland thanked Brian Rodan for a brilliant quiz which contributed greatly to a well-received fun evening enjoyed by all.
