Club President 2018 - 2019

Meeting No. 1982
Thursday 7th February 2019

Instead of the usual meeting, this week the club held a Fellowship evening viewing the recently released movie "Storm Boy" at the local Victa Cinema.

A major draw-card for the movie is its location – being set in our own back-yard, so to speak. Parts of Port Elliot were recognisable and drew murmurs of recognition from the audience. A very successful evening for the club members who were able to attend.

There is only one notice for inclusion in this week's newsletter, and that comes from Rotarian Bob Sedunary who is organising an AFL Tipping competition for our club. To quote Bob –

AFL TIPPING COMPETITION

Our Rotary Club has decided to run its own "Online" AFL footy tipping competition in 2019. The first match is on Thu 21st March, so you need to join prior to that. You can still join later & you will be given the "Default" scores until you become financial. It will cost you $15 dollars per entry & the proceeds will support ARH (Australian Rotary Health). We can also accommodate those wanting to join that don't have regular access to the internet or a Smartphone.

Below is the URL to access the details & get started.

Join the other 15 that have already "Registered" & have some fun. The more members, friends & cats (sorry Graham Brown, dogs) that join, the bigger your prize will be.

Please join up your partners & friends & I hope I can deliver an enjoyable experience. I am learning at the same time as you.

For more information, contact the Competition Manager, Bob Sedunary by email, or phone 0429 999 075
