MEETING NUMBER 2068

THURSDAY 11th February 2021

Venue: Grosvenor Hotel

Acting Sergeant Alan Mullins opened the meeting

Presidents Report:

- Pt Elliot market vacancy on 20th February filled by Marilyn.

Secretary Report:

- Applications sent to all the Rotarian partners, Jenny and Madeleine to become Friends of Rotary. Suggestion to invite all recently retired Rotarians. Please encourage your partner to become a 'Friend of Rotary'. President David recently spoke to a Probus Club and I have 2 enquiries from that day.
- COVID Safe Plan: both markets now have a COVID plan with QR Codes and manual sign-in forms. If you are a COVID Marshal, please wear your badge at Market. I have high-lighted the important sections of the plan for your convenience but please read the entire plan if possible. There are 10 copies of the QR code for each market – these will need to be displayed around the market sites. The Goolwa market will require a dedicated Marshall from 9am until the crowd thins to 200 or less on site. There is a 'COVID Pack' for each market.
- Many thanks to Alan Mullins who helped me in the shed with market equipment and trailer. Stay tuned for further updated information on the trailer and equipment.

Rotary Spots:

- Cherilyn Fleming: Guest speaker at our meeting on February 25th is Steve Bell – see profile below. Guests welcome
- Barry Pryor: market roster

Chair Alan Kluske spoke to the members on the importance of continually recruiting new members. He quoted from Past International President Ian Riesley and asked that mentors to new members be more active in supporting new Rotarians.

Peter Manuel related a story of a small club in USA and how they doubled their membership numbers.

Bob Hall suggested we advertise for market helpers

Meeting on 25th February at the Crown Hotel Steve Bell - My Everest Confession

Life-long mountaineer Steve Bell looks to the mountains for metaphors to convey powerful messages relevant to all walks of life. Sharing experiences gained as Antarctic field-worker, Royal Marines Officer and high-altitude Mountain Guide, he tells memorable stories about risk, responsibility, and leadership.

Steve was a pioneer of the commercial expedition phenomenon, leading the first British guided ascent of Everest in 1993. He founded the UK mountaineering company, Jagged Globe, and has led expeditions to all of the seven continental summits.

Steve emigrated to Australia in 2004 and lives on the Fleurieu Peninsula with his South Australian wife, Rossy, with whom he shares seven children.
