Meeting – Alexandrina Council Proposed Goolwa Wharf precinct development.

The presenters were: Matt Grant, Angelo Lanzilli and Warwick Keates. Matt Grant is the General Manager of Growth at the Alexandrina Council. The Council has been awarded $7.2 million Federal and State funding for the development of the Goolwa Wharf precinct. Angelo Lanzilli, ProcurePM is the Project Manager for design and rationale. Warwick Keates, WAX Design, landscape architect is the lead designer.

Members were taken through an overview of the project. There was much discussion and clarification of project impacts, design and practical implications. The presenters received valuable information from members. The market areas will require further updates regarding administration, timing, vehicle access, size and numbering of sites, and gale-force winds; to name a few. Further work on the plan is required. The Alexandrina Council has information on its web-site – recommended viewing for information and/or questions/comments. A link on the web-site provides opportunities for individual/personal feedback. Further questions/comments regarding the markets to be sent to Market Manager, Mary-anne Woodman.
