Guest Speaker

Chair David Kemp introduced speaker Stewart Burns. Stewart was born in Melbourne into a high achieving family and spent time in both the city and the country. He initially trained as an architect and continues to have a passion for heritage work.

He subsequently joined a broking house in the 1980's and became involved in Commodity, Futures and Derivative trading. When the firm introduced computers, Stewart was directly involved, which led him into a third career of IT, having completed an IT degree. He worked with many large companies at state, national and across the Asia Pacific.

He has two daughters, both overseas, and prioritises serving the community and making the most of his time and talents. Stewart has lived in Victor Harbor for three years and his vision for Victor Harbor (being a new Councillor), is for Council to listen to the community and progress their priorities.

Sergeant Alan conducted an extensive fine evening, catching up on previous weeks.
