MEETING NUMBER 2168 THURSDAY, 04 May 2023
Grosvenor Hotel

President Sue Dixon

- Welcomed members and guests (Guest Speaker Barrey Niven, Glenda Niven, Janice Virgin and Grant Mullins.)
- Acknowledged Rotary and Wedding Anniversaries
- Advised that David Kemp has resigned from the Club. His letter of resignation will be circulated, indicating the reasons for his departure are not related to issues within the Club.

Secretary Cherylyn Fleming

- Is seeking Director reports for the Annual Report
- Will circulate market rosters

Club Matters:

Mary-anne Woodman

- Indicated that her current lack of internet access is hindering some market documentation.
- Various stall holders are changing

Chair Bob McFarland introduced Rotarian Barrey Niven to talk about bag pipes. Bob indicated 'Niven' when googled offered 'Little Saint' but was disappointed Barrey was not wearing a kilt. Barrey has been a Club member for 12 years during this period of membership. Barrey is a previous State Champion bag pipe player and has travelled widely playing and judging bag pipes. He is currently a State judge.

Bag pipes have first been identified in Egypt some 6,000 years ago, although they are now played around the world particularly in Europe, the sub-continent and Africa. They have a strong association with the military including all services of the Australian Defence Force. Older bagpipes include silver and ivory and are highly valuable instruments. In varying forms, they include a bag, blowpipe, drone and chanter, which produces the varying tune. The bagpipe we recognise and hear most is the 'Great Highland Bagpipe, although Barrey provided us with a 'show and tell' of a range of bagpipes he has collected or been given including the smaller 'kitchen bagpipes' for playing indoors. He gave us a resounding rendition of well-known tunes.

Sergeant Alan started the fine session with a Star Wars 'own goal' announcing: 'May the 4th be with you'. The middle featured Cherilyn's shrunken kilt and it ended with Colin Francis offering the biggest 10 Cents he could picture.

200 Club winner this week was Number 05 Stuart Ellis.
