Fines Session Sergeant Bob Oliver conducted the usual spirited and lucrative fines session.

There is a subtle difference between the words complete and finished. When you marry the right person you are complete. When you marry the wrong person you are finished. And if the right one catches you with the wrong one you are completely finished.

GUEST SPEAKER – Pip Burfield, “Granite Island Past, Present & Future.’

Sergeant Bob then called on Chairman Des Schirmer to introduce our Guest Speaker, Pip Burfield, to give us a talk on Granite Island Past, Present and Future.

Pip presented an interesting picture show which took many of our older members back in time and also covered penguins, guided tours, visitor centre, current status, Island Management, NPSW Control, and recent consultations.

Pip’s final remark was that new attractions on the island have come and gone but perhaps the most enduring of all, the Causeway and Granite Island pleasures remain – a walk across the water, followed by a walk around the island, enjoying its natural beauty and Aboriginal heritage.

The meeting was officially closed at 8.15pm by President Stuart.
